No Crime to Buy.
Desperate China.
Mr. Grundy's Expenses.
Florida's Growth.

—By Arthur Brisbane—

THE SUPREME COURT says it is a crime to buy liquor, but no crime to buy it. The highest court having spoken, that settles it. But you must not conspire with a bootlegger to break the law.

How you can buy whiskey from a bootlegger WITHOUT conspiring with him to break the law your conscience must tell you.

The Supreme Court believes that Congress intended to punish the seller and the buyer go free in order that he might inform on the seller.

China is in a desperate situation, according to "the established government." Unless that government can soon win a decisive victory in the civil war now raging, China will collapse, economically and otherwise. Banditry on a gigantic scale, makes the situation unbearable.

Imagine this country in our Civil War, the North fighting the South, with tens of thousands of bandits on both sides of the line, preying on northern and southern.

China accuses Russia of instigating and financing bandit kidnapping operations.

Mr. Grundy spent $32,276 trying to win the Republican nomination for senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. Davis, secretary of labor, met only $10,541, and he, Davis, won.

Money can do much, but not everything.

There is no suggestion of corruption in connection with Mr. Grundy's expenditure, not much bigger than that of Mrs. Ruth McCormick in Illinois.

And nearly all of the money was Mr. Grundy's own.

E. D. Lambright, editor of the Tampa Morning Tribune, wants you to know that in the census Florida will shine like a star of the morning.

A number of Florida towns have gained more than 300 per cent, a larger number more than 400 per cent.

Many have more than doubled in population.

Mr. Lambright believes that the total Florida census will show a gain of more than 50 per cent, bigger than California's gain.

Mr. Lambright objected to newspaper references to a "26 per cent gain for Florida." In that particular Florida was a misprint or a telegraphic error for New York, which had gained about 26 per cent.

Everybody in California should be delighted to hear Florida's growth and everybody in Florida should be delighted with California's growth.

The important thing is that the country should rejoice in the success of his brother, as every state should rejoice in the success of its sister state.

Mr. Mulrooney, New York's new chief of police, finds in a well known hotel four men and one lady with $300,000 of stolen jewelry. Much of it came from Palm Beach.

You cannot make the South African believe that she would be so happy without her big nose ring or make former Palm Beach owners of the jewelry believe that they can be as happy without it.

Some, perhaps, are happier, the jewelry being insured, and the full value was paid in cash at a time when the Wall Street whirlwind made cash welcome.

Queen Mary of England was 85 years old yesterday, and does not look it. Recent pictures show her visiting an institution for little orphans, smiling at the tiny creatures as they marched around holding on to each other like a train.

POWER CURB RUL KIED IN ROW

Birmingham Hurls "Trust Issue" Into Next Campaign; Says G. O. P. Can't Dodge
Refusing to haggle further with hostile Senate amendments which transformed the municipal light measure into a power trust bill, Rep. Leo M. Birmingham, minority leader, today demanded of each of the Democratic candidates for governor his stand on the issue involved in a continuation of what he termed "light control of power and light."

"Each of the Democratic candidates for governor in this State—Hargrett, Peters and Ely—must answer publicly where he stands on this question," the Birmingham Democratic House leader declared.
"And if the Republicans do not face this vastly important issue squarely, it will spell their defeat this fall."
Birmingham's declaration came in conference between the two members of the legislative body and the question of power trust control was immediately born as the big issue of the fall gubernatorial election. The municipal light bill was later killed.

CITIES PINCH VICTORY

Representative Birmingham informed members of the house that the Birmingham leaders of the Senate, because of their insistence in amending the light bill in favor of the power trust, were responsible for the death of the fall gubernatorial election. The municipal light bill was later killed.

4 Dry Chiefs Give Up After Indictment

Seattle, May 27 (US)—Four dry chiefs, after a long fight, abruptly ending its investigation yesterday, the United States grand jury, in special session here since May 16, returned indictments naming the highest officials in Northwest Federal prohibition enforcement as dishonest and corrupt.
The jury indicted Roy Lyle and William M. Whitney, directors of the Anti-Saloon League, for conspiracy to accept bribes, conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act, the tariff act of 1922 and the internal revenue laws.

Indicted with them were Earl Corwin, formerly chief of the prohibition office field force; Richard L. Fryant, former prohibition agent, now deputy sheriff.

Former Proprietor of the Ritz Again Tells His Story in Special Session
John F. Sullivan told his story to a special session of the Suffolk County grand jury today.

The aged and weak proprietor of the padlocked Ritz Hotel, from whose trembling lips two months ago, for the first time, fell charges of graft and corruption involving Oliver B. Garrett and four others, walked unflinchingly into the grand jury room at the Pemberton square courthouse this morning and told his story to 21 men specially summoned to hear it.

He was the first witness before the special session of the same grand jury which earlier in the month indicted the former Boston police liquor raider on six counts of larceny in connection with his pension, alleged to have been obtained by fraud.

J. Some time tomorrow was set for departure. Meanwhile replenishment of fuel, lifting gas, ballast and supplies. More than a ton of mail has been put into the dirigible for the long trip north. The course which will be set by the dirigible's master, Dr. Hugo Eckener, was uncertain, but it was believed that he would leave the coast about Natal and strike due north until 200 miles or so north of the mouth of the Amazon river, and then head northwestward for Havana.

ALLEN AIDS DRIVE FOR TRANSFER FROM HARLESTOWN PRISON

WILL SPEED
BUILDINGS
AT NORFOLK

Enlists in the Boston Evening American's campaign to abandon old "Firetrap"

With Governor Allen officially enlisted in the Boston Evening American's campaign to abandon the antiquated State prison at Charlestown, plans were made today to speed up construction of key buildings at the modern prison colony in Norfolk.

Within six months, as a result of the Governor's recommendations to rush the work, 170 more convicts will be transferred to Norfolk from the overcrowded, insanitary fire-trap at Charlestown. There are now 120 in Norfolk.

And there, when political prosecution has been widely discontinued, the entire body of State prison inmates, numbering some 300, will be housed.

Governor Allen's supplementary budget recommendation for an additional appropriation of $150,000 to speed up construction of key buildings at the modern prison colony in Norfolk.

There, the Boston American revealed, men are constantly exposed to the danger of a second Ohio penitentiary holocaust, living under conditions that breed infection of crime.

This appropriation will enable us immediately to increase the force of skilled workers on the construction work at Norfolk," said Sup. Howard B. Gill at the prison colony.

"It assures speedy construction of key buildings, power house, kitchen, a dormitory, with sewer and water supply, and essential in establishing the institution as a going concern."

Asked as to the capacity of the key buildings, Gill replied they would accommodate, when finished, 1500 to 2000 men.

"You mean they will take care of a prison population twice that of the present antiquated State prison at Charlestown?" he was asked.

"Yes," he replied.

He said that when the key buildings are finished he will work on a modern hospital and clinic, receiving and disciplinary buildings and modern terms for cell blocks, and additional dormitories.

Work on the new prison colony was started in 1927, mainly through persistent efforts of the Boston Evening American to begin its drive.

For a year, $202,500 has been spent by the State for a retaining wall and a few buildings, but the appropriation will bring the total to $707,500.

Andover Man Claims Honor of Naming Planet "Pluto"

Andover, May 27 (AP)—Baron de Ralston, Boston, and local manufacturer, believes he first suggested the name of "Pluto" for the trans-Neptunian body discovered by Lowell observatory astronomer at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Ralston wrote observatory officials two days after announcement of the discovery outlining reasons why he believed Pluto appropriate.

The observatory Monday announced it had selected Pluto, pointing out that it felt itself easily to symbolization as "P. L." which also were the initials of Percival Lowell, for whom the observatory was named.

Town Leaders Plead in Vain for Dog

Stoughton, May 27 (AP)—A millionaire manufacturer, a banker, a physician and a druggist lauded the character and disposition of a German shepherd dog, owned by Horace W. Denison of Cape St. in local court today, but their arguments failed to convince Judge Abner Bralley.

He ordered that Denison, charged with keeping a dangerous dog, should restrain the animal and refused to find him not guilty. An appeal was taken with the threat of carrying the case to Supreme Court.

Mrs. A. A. Meade, a neighbor of Denison, also owns a German shepherd, and she claimed that her dog was attacked on her property by Denison's animal, and that she is afraid of her neighbor's beast.

J. W. Wood, millionaire manufacturer and father-in-law of Denison; Fred D. Leonard, president of the Stoughton Trust Co.; Dr. Edward A. Porritt and Archer B. Campbell, druggist, were the character witnesses for the dog.

CURLEY WAR ON LAMPPOON IS AT AN END

Harvard Man Apologizes for Attack and Mayor is Satisfied

The "war" between Mayor Curley and the Harvard Lampoon ended suddenly today when His Honor accepted a public apology from Paul Brooks, president of the Lampoon.

The turn of events followed characteristics of Curley in the current issue of Harvard's playboy publication that brought threats of suits from the mayor.

Brooks had difficulty making the apology due to refusal of admittance to Curley's office until after the latter saw Corporation Counsel Samuel Silverman.

It was then accepted "for the good of the city." The letter of apology read:

"Being myself responsible for anything published in the recent issue of the Harvard Lampoon, I wish to apologize for any personal offense which might have been caused. The entire matter was intended as one of jest and was not meant to be taken seriously."

NO RIDICULE INTENDED

"The object of the Lampoon was to ridicule the serious people of Boston for the terrible character of the city, and I am sure you realize that you are, to a large degree, responsible."

"I deeply regret any false impressions which the current number of the Harvard Lampoon might have given to the people of Boston and in any way, both of which are a disgrace to the Commonwealth to be of the highest type."

APOLOGY IS ACCEPTED

"In closing I may express my regret at any mental discomforts which might have caused you or yours."

Immediately upon receipt of this letter the mayor issued the following statement:

"The complete and abject apology of the president of the Lampoon, Paul Brooks, in view of his extreme youth and the effect of court proceedings might have on the future promptness to accept the apology made and I am glad I concerned the incident is closed."

GO DIE IN INDIA DOCK STRIKE

London, British India, May 27 (AP)—Sixty deaths were reported today in two days of disorders attending a dock strike in the Indian capital.

Many more are believed to have been killed in the rioting between British coolies and imported Hindus, with whom the police have been battling unrelentingly since yesterday morning.

The rioters were armed with iron bars, sticks and daggers. Police have on several occasions been obliged to open fire into the mob. The populace was thrown into terror by the rioting and remained indoors, afraid to venture forth even for food.

Military forces were stationed at all entrances to the city. The natives wielded daggers with such telling effect that the number treated for lacerations far exceeded that of the firing by police, or those battered with stones.

Many of the injured retreated to hiding places among the wharves and in boats.

Rioting in the Bhandi bazaar district of Bombay yesterday cost four lives and 35 were seriously wounded. Troops patrolled the district today.

the power trusts. Representative Birmingham declared, BILL WRECKED

He had previously stated that Democrats seeking election must adopt the policy of former Gov. Alfred E. Smith and Gov. Franklin B. Roosevelt of New York, in connection with the power trust question.

The most arbitrary of the amendments insisted upon by the Senate would have permitted private companies to appeal to the courts on decisions of the public utility commission on the prices and parts of private plants to be built or by municipalities forced, by high rates of the trust, to go into business for themselves.

The House supported the conference committee and refused to accept the Senate amendments. The House was represented in the conference by Reps. Birmingham, Henry B. Shattuck of Boston and George F. Brooks of Worcester.

Senators Angus L. Gordon of Missouri, father of the hostile amendments, Donald W. Nicholson of Wisconsin and Clarence P. Kuder of Cambridge, represented the Senate.

SENATE WONT RECEDE

Rep. Shattuck stated another conference committee would be useless because of the unyielding attitude on the part of the upper branch. He vigorously opposed any measure which would allow an appeal to the court from the commissioner's rulings saying that the right of a municipality to go into this business is a question of "policy and not one of law."

The Senate conferees refused to recede on this point, insisting in through the whole question into the courts," he disclosed.

Rep. C. F. Nelson of Saugus was another speaker against giving in the Senate. He pointed out that the House voted for the original bill 201 to 7.

HOOVER OPENS SAFETY MEET

Washington, May 27 (AP).—Opening the third national conference on street and highway safety, President Hoover told the assembled delegates today their accident prevention work was a service to the entire world.

The President deplored the great loss of human life in street and highway accidents and described the toll of suffering among surviving victims as of national concern. He said, in part:

"The federal government can properly assist in securing the spread of information and ideas and co-ordination of activities, but it still remains the fact, nevertheless, that the state and local authorities, with the cooperation of the public, must be responsible for the practical application of remedial measures."

"The remedies developed by this conference must therefore rest for their final effectiveness upon the action of the states and the communities, supported in every possible way by the great body of citizenship."

700 Go to Convention

About 700 delegates from the M. C. O. F. confederacy and vicinity will leave today on a special train for Springfield for the annual State convention.

TURNER AND HIS LION ON HOP

Haverhill, Mass., May 27 (AP).—Accompanied by "Glimmer," his lion and mascot, Lieut. Col. Florence Turner took off at 8:00 a. m. (E. S. T.) today on a one-stop flight to Los Angeles in an attempt to establish a new speed record from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The one-stop east-to-west record is 19 hours 10 minutes and 32 seconds, established by Capt. Frank Hawks. There is no one-stop record. Turner said he probably would make his stop at Wichita, Kan.

Turner said he expected to make another attempt shortly to lower the west-to-east record held by Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh. He said his series of transcontinental flights were an experiment prior to the launching of a fast transcontinental mail and express service to be backed by a group of men headed by Earl Glimmer of Los Angeles.

Elevator Man 'Going Up,' Gets Title and Bride

Waterloo, Ia., May 27 (AP).—Dick Wolsley has quit his job as elevator man in the Blackhawk building after 12 years and turned his ear to the call of a British baronetcy.

Miss Marian Baker of Brimham, Eng., came here Saturday seeking "Sir Reginald Beatty Wolsley, sixth baronet of Wolsley." The only Wolsley in town was the 63-year-old elevator operator.

Miss Baker said his mother had died last November and that she had asked Miss Baker to hunt out her son. She said his elder brothers were dead and that he was heir to the title and estate.

Sunday Wolsley and Miss Baker were married. They plan to return soon to England. He left England 33 years ago.

"You have half a minute to live," that's what a woodcutter of Chicago heard. Read the thrilling story of how he was rescued at the crucial moment, in the American Weekly section of next Sunday's Boston Sunday Advertiser.

Vegetables, fresh or canned, can be made much more tasty and satisfying if they are cooked with a dash of sugar to a pinch of salt. Likewise, French dressing, in which such a combination of sugar and salt is used, is a delicious addition to raw or cooked vegetable salads. And sugar also modifies the harsh acids of fruits, making them more pleasing to the taste. Most foods are more delicious with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

"Beef to the Ankles!"

When tempted to over-indulge

"Reach for a Lucky instead"

Bemoderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

"Beyond 30 years of age, the mortality among overweights rises rapidly with the age and with the weight,"—says Dr. Brandreth Simmons in an article in The Medical Record. We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

GIRL FLIER IN
980 LOOPS

Muskogee, Okla., May 27 (AP)—Miss Laura Ingalls, 25-year-old New Yorker, today had written and consecutive inside loops in the sky above the Harbor municipal airport here.

Averaging about 4½ loops for every minute she was in the air at the airport's dedication last yesterday, Miss Ingalls exceeded by 68 loops the women's record of 244 she established May 3 at Lambert field in St. Louis.

"Isn't it bully, that motor, that 'L'?" she asked Army officers who protected her from the enthusiastic crowd as she landed. She jumped from her plane, obtained a drink of water and was carried on the shoulder of a man who brought her motor car. When anyone exceeds her record, she is said to try again.

She was $1000 richer in guarantees and prizes because of her flight.

Celler Ridicules

"Low Pay" of Judges

Washington, May 27 (AP)—Asserting "rare judicial talents are not to the federal bench because of his ridiculous salaries paid," Rep. Celler (D), New York, today urged passage of his bill to increase the pay of federal circuit judges to $12,500 and of district judges to $10,000.

The increase for district justices would apply only to those sitting in cities of more than 1,000,000 population.

Sets Air Loop Record

Merry-go-round woman champion of the air. Miss Laura Ingalls of New York gained that title yesterday by flying 980 consecutive inside loops over the airport at Muskogee, Okla.

2 RAIDS MADE UNDER ORDERS OF McDEVITT

Despite the abolition of the police headquarters liquor squad and Commissioner Hultman's decree that division commanders enforce the prohibition statutes, Dept. Supt. James McDevitt, sent three members of the bureau of criminal investigation into Division 15, Charleston, today to make two raids and three arrests.

He declined to comment upon his action with relation to Commissioner Hultman's order other than to say:

"I don't feel that this is a liquor squad."

Capt. W. W. Livingston in charge of the Charleston division did not participate in the raids and so far as is known was unaware that they were even contemplated.

The members of the bureau of criminal investigation who took part were Detectives John W. Ward, Peter P. Deane and an officer unidentified, who secured evidence of sale in two instances.

Petitioner of Deputy Supt. McDevitt to reveal the latter's activities, was taken as an indication he would be used again in a similar capacity.

Pat Crawford, who was arrested for an illegal sale in Boston at William J. Villard's, Capt. at was arrested for an illegal sale in Medford at and William Villard of Medford, was arrested for keeping and exposing at the same Medford at address.

POINT OF ORDER MADE AGAINST TARIFF BILL

Washington, May 27 (AP)—A Democratic point of order against the new flexible provision of the Tariff Bill was raised today as Senator Smoot laid the final draft of the measure before the Senate with a lengthy defense of its provisions.

Senator Reel, a member of the Finance Committee, made the point of order, contending the conference had exceeded their authority in formulating the new flexible clause.

Senator Smoot made a long defense of the bill. He said it was written primarily in the interest of agriculture, carried 500 increases and 250 decreases, and based on 1928 imports would raise $530,000,000 in revenue, an increase of $107,000,000 over existing law.

Senator Reel's second notice he said would raise points of order against the original report. He did not say what duties he would contest but it is believed they will be in charges, cheese and watches.

A re-President Curtis ruled a point of order could be made against any part of the two reports before the final vote. If he sustains any one of them the bill would have to be returned to conference between the two houses.

Ten Years in Prison for Attempt to Kill

Lawrence, May 27—August Voe, 48, Lynn shoemaker, in Superior criminal court today was found guilty of assault with intent to murder Joseph Tatro, Lynn lawyer, on Feb. 10 last.

Judge David W. Dillon sentenced Voe to 10 to 12 years in State Prison. Tatro was shot in his own office in Lynn, and testified the trouble was over a bill of $50 in connection with a case in which he represented Voe.

Andover Rate Probe Killed by Senate

The order, adopted by the House for a special investigation into rate making rates in Andover, was killed in the Senate by a ruling that the action came after Senator Edmund F. Fish of Brookline had asked where the Log statue would stop if it was going to investigate rates in every city and town.

Letters From American Readers

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Editor Boston American:
One thing is apparent in this city—the decline of jazz. I used to hear a good deal of it in the past, where my work took me. Now I seldom hear it jangling in my ears. I think the popularity of the radio, with its different productions, has in a large degree changed the jazz taste. People will practice any kind of self-denial today to possess a radio. What is coming over the radio is none of the same stuff that formerly, I think that your readers will agree to this.

The origin of jazz, flapperism and such like are expressions of a hungry and unsatisfied soul within us. People are willing to rise from jazz into a better musical atmosphere, if you give it to them. This is what radio is doing. It will continue to lift people to better tastes. If we heard nothing but jazz over the air, how disgusted we would be.

British Ban on Jews

Seen's Support to Moslem

Editor Boston American:

The reason given for stopping Jewish immigration to Palestine is to give Sir John Simpson an opportunity to investigate the whole problem of Jewish immigration and land purchase, "but one doubts very much if that is the real reason," says Dr. S. Margolis, editor of the Jewish Day. The 3600 immigration certificate had been issued on the basis of the economic situation in Palestine. It is to say, on the basis of a definite understanding of the country in its present state, can absorb the increasing laboring population. If anything happened to change this economic picture, nothing of the sort happened. It isn't even claimed by the British government that the capacity of Palestine to absorb Jewish immigrants has decreased in the last few weeks. The motive, then, that dictates the change of front with regard to immigration, is not economic at all, but political.

What this occurrence may be is not so hard to divine; it is the new situation that has arisen in India. Over in India British policy has only one mainstay, and that is the Mohammedan population, which thus far has refused to join in the movement of civil disobedience led by Gandhi. The Mohammedan population has to be cultivated and kept loyal. The present suspension of Jewish immigration to Palestine is a convenient Mohammedan prejudice against the Jewish National Home in Palestine and a further bid for the continued Mohammedan support in India.

All of which is very well from a purely British imperial point of view. But what about the Jew?

ABRAHAM ALPERT.

Profess Naming Planets After Pagan Gods

Editor Boston American:

So the astronomers, according to your paper, have concluded to name the new planet beyond Neptune, "Pluto." This is keeping the planets in the family. Pluto is brother of Jupiter and husband of Proserpine. Proserpine is the daughter of Jupiter and Ceres. She is abducted by Pluto to be his wife and queen of the world.

It is very strange to me that a heavenly body should be named after heathen gods. Did the palmist, said.

Why should astronomers make them declare the glory of the heathen gods. Personally, I think that this type of nomenclature for the heavens should be changed, and many agree with me.

An Appreciation of Our Chosen Edition

Editor Boston American:
Permit me to express to you the very great appreciation of shirts wherever we go that we would miss them very much if the style was changed. What I am trying to say is this: leave the whole question to the decision of women and not to any dress dictator. But for money's sake keep them out of the pulpit.

CLARA FISKE.

Restating Foreign Policy of George Washington

Editor Boston American:
The talk about the League of Nations is the bunk.

New despatches state that Mussolini is in a war mood and is selling down with France.

A newspaper publisher just returning from Europe finds all the nations there groggy and warlike.

I was glad to see the Boston American and Hearst newspapers trying to break up our joining in the league—and the letters to our editors to come home were the best ever, powerful and truth telling.

Americans are going to fight for the United States of America when the time does come—and we are not going to war on another nation to help another country.

Hands off should be our policy, and in the meantime, as the Boston American states, no dictation as to the limitation of our navy.

The United States is powerful enough to say: "We will do as we please, as long as we are not bullying into your affairs."

MORRIS MILLER.

A Word in Behalf of the Hooker Statue

Editor Boston American:
I was pleased to notice in your paper that the dome of the State House is to be gilded again for the Tercentenary celebration. This painting may extend to other sections of the Capitol.

But do not forget to retouch the statue of General Hooker. The marks on it at present are repulsive. Also brush up Anne Hutchinson's statue.

M. R. BARBOCK.

End of Church Service Broadcast Foreseen

Editor Boston American:
I noticed that broadcasting by the churches is not as popular as it has been. Partly the Church has limited it to the evening service on Sundays.

Other churches are making, or will soon make, similar changes. This whole matter of broadcasting was talked over informally at a small gathering of church workers recently.

It was agreed that the novelty had worn off. Church goes do not get the same results from this as they do when they attend church services in person.

They agreed that broadcasting was one of the most interesting and instructive forms of reporting news, but they thought that for as the services were concerned that it was waning and eventually would be dropped.

More Recognition for Poets in United States

Editor Boston American:
Boston literary circles seem to be well pleased with the appointment of John Massfield as the poet laureate of England, according to Robert Bridges.

We have many poets in Greater Boston. They have some interest in this achievement of becoming a poet laureate of England. They would like to see such a movement in the United States to recognize poets.

Incidentally, poets do not get any too great acknowledgment in this country. Boston, however, is the only city in the United States that fosters respect and admiration for new poets.

Alfred Noyes, English poet who in Boston some years ago acknowledged this.

LADY ASTOR IN BEER DEBATE

London, May 27 (AP)—Lady Astor today engaged in a lively discussion in the House of Commons of a motion to reduce the duty on beer.

The members, knowing Lady Astor always takes part in any debate connected with liquor, gave her a rousing cheer as she entered the chamber and another round of applause when, a little later, she said:

"I'm tired of all this nonsense about beer, and I'm tired of all this talk about the duty on beer."

"We drink too much beer and the empire is doing in the result of it," she said. "I'm tired of all this nonsense about beer, and I'm tired of all this talk about the duty on beer."

HUB PILGRIMS IN CATHEDRAL AT CARTHAGE
By IRENE A. O'DONNELL
BOSTON, May 27 (AP)—Hub Pilgrims, sponsored by the Eucharistic Congress, left for Carthage, North Africa, May 8 (By Mail)—This morning we saw our first real Carthage. The city of Christian martyrs and Crusades is in all parts of the world.
In the distance was the amphitheater and beyond that the Basilica of St. Cyprian. The cathedral was decked with flags and its bells rang out a joyous welcome to the thousands of pilgrims who thronged along, camp stools on their arms, waiting before that the bill was not quite so steep.
The pontifical mass began at 10. Within the church at this Mass were the dignitaries of the church, Cardinals, Bishops, Knight Abbots, Knights of the Sepulchre, and many prelates whose rank I did not know.
The thing that impressed me most was the congregational singing. Every one, including the French peasant, raised his voice at the common of the Mass, something we do not do in America.
After Mass we visited the Museum of St. Louis, which contains many relics of Christian Carthage. The museum is a fine collection of the children of Africa, had come into Carthage for this event.
VISIT VILLAGE
That evening, after returning to our host and enjoying a good dinner, our pilgrims joined with those from the Araxay, which was anchored beside us, and attended Holy Hour in the little village of St. Cyprian. The French soldiers had cleared the streets for us and in bands of 100, a thousand in all, we marched through rows of staring Arabs. The Bishop of Carthage, the Bishop of Algiers and the Bishop of Tunis were present.
We sang as we went, and as we entered the courtyard of the church it was a great sight. English speaking priests who greeted us at the door.
Next day some of the pilgrims drove to Carthage early in order to attend Mass at the Basilica of St. Cyprian, but most of us attended Mass in the town, going to Carthage at 8 for high Mass. We then had the hours of 12 to 5 in which to see more of the ancient city.
It was a happy band of pilgrims that returned to the boat Friday afternoon to discuss the day of the day, to compare notes on all far into the night on the moonlit deck of the Hochambau.

At Greenfield they were met by Charles Mosher and George Wilcox of the local tour committee and 1000 other persons.

"A GIRL may be appealing for ever so many reasons," says Evelyn Brent, the star whose own magnetism has proved so irresistible on the screen. "But the most compelling charm of all is smooth, soft skin."
"An exquisite complexion, somehow, is always alluring."
"Long ago the directors in Hollywood found out that no girl could hope to win out on the screen unless she has the kind of skin that makes you fairly gasp with admiration."
"So you may be sure we all take mighty good care of our skin."

Mrs. Annie Holman, who lives on the second floor with her five grown daughters, directed the children in nightclothing, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hahn carried their three children from the top floor to the street.

The five children of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lesser were carried to the street by their parents. Barney Shore who occupies the third floor of his three children, three children, and one child, was rescued by firemen.

More than 25 persons fled from homes when flames swept a building at 100 Washington st., Jamaica Plain, resulting in two alarm fires. The loss was estimated at $10,000.

Two alarms were sounded for a northern blaze in the stores at the junction of Milton and Norfolk sts., Dorchester, which did damage estimated at $8000.

At first reported as the Salvation Army People's Palace, the fire resulted in residents being sent from all the downtown stations, but they were ordered back on arrival.

Three children were among persons driven to the street, being assisted to safety by adults and Patrolmen K. Brown and Maguire of Division 1.

The fire started in a bed on the rear, the first floor of which is occupied by a shoe repair shop. The flames spread upstairs following a water pipe and a window.

Schwartz prepared half a dozen sets of papers today and continues tomorrow. Papers must be signed by Commissioner Hultman before being filed with the Superior Court.

AIR ATTACK ON QUINCY FAILS

Quincy anti-aircraft forces saved the city from possible destruction last night when a squadron of "enemy" planes swept out of the sky and in battle formation released a hail of "bombs."

Aided by the beams of powerful searchlights, the city's defenders succeeded in beating off the invaders while 5000 frenzied spectators cheered them on to unprecedented deeds of valor.

The first fire opened with a salvo of smoke variety and the shells were of a similar character, but everybody had a good time as the three American Legion posts of the city inaugurated a drive for 1930 new members.

DOCKER CALLS HULTMAN'S CLEANUPS "AMiable GESTURES"

DOCKERS HIS 'BROADCAST' OF RAIDS

Civic League's Bill to Probe All Police, However, Killed by House Committee

Police Commissioner Eugene C. Hultman is performing a "lot of amiable gestures" with a bucket of whitewash handy, Conrad Crocker of the Liberal Civic League, Inc., told the House rules committee today.

Crocker appeared in behalf of a petition calling for an investigation of police and law enforcement officials throughout the state in connection with prohibition.

He predicted the committee would kill his bill, claiming politicians want the voters to forget the Garrett case. The bill was killed after Carrie F. Sheehan of Charlestown, former deputy election commissioner, and John C. Gordon of Pomerville had spoken for it.

"BROADCASTS" RAIDS

Referring to Police Commissioner Hultman's method, Crocker said the housecleaning Boston is experiencing is amusing.

He said Hultman had published notices that he had taken out 100 warrants, and compared the action to a pugilist "broadcasting a punch."

"Hultman is more up to date," he said, "than broadcast his raids. According to the papers there were 100 raids yesterday night in which they got 180 gallons of liquor. It is possible they found that much with all the publicity given the raids. Someone must have been awfully careless."

Crocker said he had been in the Attorney General's investigation of Oliver B. Garrett that he could reveal startling facts. Asked the main name he knew the Suffolk County grand jury was investigating, Garrett, the speaker replied he did not know.

MORE "GARRETT'S"
The investigation of Atty-Gen Warner pointed the finger of suspicion at a good many members of the Boston police. Crocker said: "If there is one Garrett," he said, "there are a thousand more in the police. If the investigation did nothing more than to show how many officials have been fired and convicted in the last few years it would be well worth while."

The petition called for the appointment of a commission consisting of the attorney general, the senator and three representatives to make the investigation.

Six small North End boys left City Hall overjoyed today because Mayor Curley listened to their plea for a playground in Foster st., so that they and their chums will not have to cross Bush Commercial st. to play at North End park or revert to playing in dark, dank alleys.

The mayor told Mrs. Adolph C. Burham of Newton, chairman of the Massachusetts Civic League, who accompanied the boys that the city would buy the lot, they recommended for the playground if it could be bought for the assessed valuation, as she promised it could.

The boys who called on the mayor are Michael Lanza, 14, of Commercial st.; Andrew De Carlo, 13, of Commercial st.; the chairman; Nicholas DeCarlo, 11, brother of Andrew; Frank Lanza, 12, brother of Michael; Carmine Lanza, 11, of Foster st.; and Louis Tardivo, 14, of Commercial st.

Two of the boys are recovering from injuries suffered after crossing Commercial st. with its structure and heavy traffic, or playing on the rough variant lot which will become their playground after it is bought and put in shape by the city.

WHITING'S GRADE "A" MILK

LIVE BETTER AT LESS COST

DRINK MORE MILK + + +

Food scientists are stressing the importance of more milk for all the family. Milk, they say, is one of Nature's most perfect foods, possessing in itself correctly balanced elements which will sustain life longer than any other single form of nourishment. In food value, for example, a quart of milk is equal to a pound of lean steak, eight eggs, or two pounds of chicken. Figure the comparative cost—then give milk a more prominent place in your food budget. Whiting's Grade "A" is a purer, richer, cleaner milk—backed by the Whiting reputation which for three-quarters of a century has stood for better milk. Slattery Is 10-8 Choice Over Latzo in Legion Show

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

SOFT SHOE DANCING AROUND SHARKEY'S CAMP :: By HAL OFFMAN

FREE CARD AT GARDEN TONIGHT

Jimmy Slattery, world's light heavyweight champion, and Pete Latzo are eagerly waiting for the sound of the gong which will send them into action in a ten-round charity bout at the Boston Garden tonight under the direction of the Crosscup-Pishon Post of the American Legion.

Slattery rules a 10 to 1 favorite in the betting, but Latzo has many backers who are confident he will beat the Buffalo sensation.

As Latzo has agreed to enter the ring wearing moccasins, 175 pounds, Slattery's title will not be at stake.

It is expected that Slattery, brilliant boxer and slugging puncher, and Latzo, aggressive and a terrific fighter, will furnish one of the greatest ring conflicts ever staged in this city.

Leaders in the world, civil and business world will be at the Garden.

The Crosscup-Pishon Post show in addition to furnishing a great boxing card, will also have the only card that has always surrounded such events.

Military drills, a tribute to the heroes of the World War and other features will tend to make the event one long to be remembered.

Slattery finished his training for the big bout in whirlwind style, and when he weighs in he probably will not weigh much more than a pound over the light heavyweight limit of 175 pounds. He is in the best of condition and confident he will score a decisive victory.

Latzo Confident of Defeating Slattery

Latzo came to Boston in confidence for the fight, but this did not hold him back from enacting in some light work in one of the local games. He is in perfect form and he isn't a bit doubtful about the outcome. He believes that he will give Slattery the worst of it back in his career and will enable him to challenge for the light heavyweight title.

Governor Allen and his staff Mayor Curley and some of the city officials will attend the fight. The boys also are waiting for an answer from Col. Charles Lindbergh, who was invited early last week.

Lindbergh has notified the Legion that if he could arrange things suitable for a trip to Boston he would make it.

The doors of the Garden will open early. The big Weymouth Post Band will give a concert while the big crowd is filing in there and will be singing and other surprises for the big assembly.

The ticket sale was brisk today, but there is still some seats that can be obtained at the Legion office at 254 Washington st. and at the Boston Garden.

The preliminary bouts for the night will be held at 8 o'clock and boys in the 135-pound class of the New England championship tournament. That 135-pounder MacLean is starting regularly at the Garden.

STOCK MARKET

ST. ACTIVITY

New York, May 27.—Speculation for the day was again predominated by the stock market, in contrast to the previous week, when the market was unable to ignore unfavorable news from the railways and the farm implement makers, and became unsettled as the season was on.

There were also unconfirmed rumors that a new holding company will be formed to acquire substantial blocks of Niagara Hudson and Consolidated Gas with a view to an eventual merger.

Trading was accelerated somewhat during the early hours of the session, and a wide assortment of good shares, industrials and securities joined the advance. Gains of 2 to 3 points were recorded.

Unfavorable news developments, however, had a depressing influence on the rail and farm implement groups, and a few shares in the latter group mounted speculative resistance.

The record made by the railways in April does not improve as the evidence continues to pour in. With considerable reporting, the operating income for the month was a drop of 10 per cent from April of 1929. The first 14 reports indicated a decline of less than 27 per cent.

Some of the more important trunk lines such as Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, showed relatively poor results, but the general decline in farm implement output is now reported as more drastic than in the previous period.

OIL REPORTS GOOD
Reports from the petroleum industry, however, were more favorable. Early estimates indicate a substantial increase in production last week of more than 30,000 barrels daily, with California, where producers are now said to be trying to bring the new six months' production agreement into effect for about half of the drop.

The management of Tidewater denied rumors of an impending merger with Continental, but the shares were advanced, as the corporate news included Remington-Union's earnings for the year ended Mar. 31, showing net profit of $1,000,000 and a dividend of $1.20 in the previous year.

Credit continued to increase rapidly, and time money rates slackened further, although call money at 3 per cent, and time money and commercial paper rates, which the investment market has been five years.

This condition stationing of weekly reporting Federal Reserve member banks, which showed a gain of $100,000,000 in securities, while banks showed the same period ended $100,000,000. All other loans declined $100,000,000.

High prices in the early advance of the session, when American Power & Light, Electric Power & Light, and other utilities, were active.

In the bond market, the Federal Reserve, Hersey preferred, and other bonds, were active, and the ground for the year.

In the farm implement, Case was depressed more than 14 points, and International Harvester, a subsidiary, lost a point or more, while Case, a recent firm spot, was active.

Utilities Hydro

Hammond Head of Big Oil Company
Group headed by John H. Hammond and Harlan Hammond, and reported to include the Fish & Bros., Detroit, has been announced as the management of the Exploration Co. of Atlantic-Pacific Oil Exploration Co. through purchase of $1,250,000 of the corporation's stock. The company controls through stock ownership the Atlantic-Pacific Oil Co., the Pacific Exploration Co., and the Rocky Mountain Petroleum Co., now operating extensive oil and natural gas properties in Wyoming, Montana and Michigan. Properties of company and subsidiaries are said to cover 125,000 acres with appraised value of $15,000,000.

Roan Antelope in New Financing
2000 stockholders' meeting of the Roan Antelope Copper Mining Co. has been called for June 10 to approve issuance of $1,000,000 of 7 per cent 15-year debentures stock together with options on 200,000 ordinary shares at $5 a share to June 30, 1935.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

BY FRANK H. MELDON

Dullness of the stock market during the past week has been generally ascribed, in State St. investment circles to the fact that it is felt that this is what is generally considered an "in-between" season for general business. It is surprising, however, that underwriters are waiting to have the vacations finished in Wall St. before the operations of the market are expected to be modern "swords of Damocles" due to remain suspended for yet some time to come.

Wall St. writer says of a well known industrial leader who spends his vacations annually in the Pine Tree State:

"I think the ranks of New Englanders have been steadily increasing, and the number of corporations or corporations are increasing. From a 'Small' business, the performance gained in the various positions which he has held, has proven invaluable since assuming the presidency in the firm."

"Under his advice the company has enjoyed expanding earnings, with a record showing that it has been able to keep competition from the electric refrigerator business, and to expand from natural ice to artificial ice during his regime."

"Although a big man physically, his activity is surprising. He has a handball championship of the State, and has been a member of the club, which he has held, traitor to this. At the moment golf is his favorite sport, and he has also taken place during his regime."

With a three day holiday at the end of the week, the stock market workers may be able to observe the national day as some have been to those whose "veteran" connections are in the army. The opportunity will be afforded for participating in the various patriotic activities in the various parts of the country. In the meantime, the market is making a record at this time, will undoubtedly be considerably higher.

"Consider the great increase in the number of listed shares recent volume of around 2,000,000 shares. The day has been the prelude to the lower volume of trading in the market, and the periods of accumulation preceding the present rise in the market. The basis of a ratio of total listed shares, volume of 2,000,000 shares today is equivalent to the volume of 2,000,000 shares on the basis of the stock market, which is a record of five years ago, says Yettman's Statistical Service."

Lee, Higginson & Co. have received complete details of the Bankers' Industrial Development Company, a company organized in London by the Bank of America, which is expected to have interests to assist in the rationalization and liquidation of British industries. Montague Collis Newman will be chairman of the company, and the company is expected to be the active head of the company.

The nominal capital of the new concern is $6,000,000. It is not the purpose of the new concern to enter into competition with the ordinary business of existing financial institutions, but to examine schemes of rationalization of the country and their application to the country. The scheme in question has been endorsed by the best expert advice which the company has received, and that the demand for capital is expected to be met by the support of the institutions most competent to meet it.

Cotton Steady in New York Market
New York, May 27.—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 3 cents, and the market was active and the indifferent weather made the market for cotton steady, but the comparatively light offerings were restricted to the covering and a little trade or consumption was reported. The market was relatively quiet and later deliveries were about unchanged to 7 points higher, closing at 14.70.

Berkshire Spinning Dividend Is Passed
No action was taken on the Berkshire Spinning Association, due at this time. For four quarters dividends have been paid.

CHICAGO GREAT WESTERN
Chicago Great Western first income for four months ended April 30 is equal to 40 cents a share on the $713,346 shares of 4% preferred, on which there is an accumulation of $1,000,000, against last year's $777,513 in the first four months of 1929.
